About Andrew Young:

Andrew Jackson Young Jr. is a minister, politician, diplomat and activist. Beginning his career as a pastor, Young was an early leader in the Civil Rights Movement, serving as executive director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and a close confidant to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. He later became active in politics, serving first as a U.S. Congressman from Georgia, then United States Ambassador to the United Nations, and finally Mayor of Atlanta. Since leaving political office, the Honorable Mr. Young has founded or served in a large number of organizations working on issues of public policy and political lobbying.

Freedom is a struggle, and we do it together. - Andrew Young
