

Nobel Peace Laureate Forum: Preventing War & Ending World Conflicts

Presented by the Wholistic Peace Institute and the Jubitz Family Foundation

Wednesday, February 29, 2012

President F. W. de Klerk, 1993 Nobel Peace Prize (Co-Winner with Nelson Mandela)

In December 1989, de Klerk met with the imprisoned leader of the African National Congress (ANC), Nelson Mandela. On 2 February 1990, de Klerk lifted the ban on the ANC, the South African Communist Party (SACP) and the Pan Africanist Congress (PAC). On 11 February Mandela was released. Negotiations with Mandela and other party leaders were held for the peaceful end of apartheid and transition to democratic rule. In 1993, De Klerk and Mandela were awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for their efforts at reform in South Africa.
